

WINDSOR LOCKS ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME NOMINATION PROCESS

The Windsor Locks Athletic Hall of Fame, Inc. exists to solicit, collect and review nominations and elect inductees to the Windsor Locks Athletic Hall of Fame. Nominations are accepted from the public. Before a candidate can be given serious consideration, a written athletic biography must be on file with the Board. See the form below for an outline of required information.

Purpose: The purpose of the Windsor Locks Athletic Hall of Fame is to honor those persons from Windsor Locks who have made outstanding accomplishments and contributions in athletics or related endeavors, who are or were citizens of Windsor Locks or who have a recognizable link to Windsor Locks and its athletic programs.

The criteria for consideration on candidate eligibility includes:

A candidate which may be an individual or a team for the Hall of Fame must:

- be out of high school at least ten years prior to nomination.
- now or at one time been a resident of Windsor Locks or have a recognizable link to Windsor Locks.
- currently or previously achieved outstanding accomplishments in competitive athletics as a player, coach, working professional, volunteer or otherwise made a significant contribution to athletics.
- display or have displayed integrity, character and acted as a positive role model.
